

A photograph of an elderly man with grey hair, smiling and playing an acoustic guitar. He is wearing a green cardigan. The background shows a building under construction with wooden framing and corrugated metal siding. A semi-transparent white box is overlaid on the bottom half of the image, containing text.

JON LEE

NORTHWEST CRAFTSMAN

WHEN:

WHERE:

TIME:

COST:

A fourth generation, America born Chinese, Pacific Northwest native son, Jon Lee crafts songs and stories that connect people and places. He loves to share his music with any listening audience.